Pursuant to Rules 33 and 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, you are hereby required to answer and serve upon the above plaintiff answers to her First Set of Interrogatories and Request for Production of Documents, numbered and set forth below, within 30 days after service is made upon you.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Answer each Interrogatory separately and fully in writing under oath, unless it is objected to, in which event the reasons for objections must be stated in lieu of an answer.
2. An evasive or incomplete answer is deemed a failure to answer under Rule 37 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
3. You are under a continuing duty to seasonably supplement your response with respect to any question directly addressed to the identity and location of persons having knowledge of discoverable matters and the identity of each person expected to be called upon as an expert witness at trial and the subject matter on which he is expected to testify. Furthermore, you are under a similar duty to correct any incorrect response when you have later learned that it is incorrect.
4. In answering the Interrogatories, defendants are required to furnish information that is available to them or subject to their reasonable inquiry, including information in possession of their attorneys, advisors, or other persons, firms, partnerships, corporations or associations directly or indirectly employed by or connected with her or anyone else otherwise subject to their control.
